“Duty, Honor, Country. Those three hallowed words reverently dictate what you ought to be, what you can be, what you will be.” Douglas MacArthur

Greenwood Post 252 has been an icon in the local Greenwood community for 100 years. As we celebrate turning 100 this year we are planing great celebrations throughout the year. We released a post coin on New Years Eve to start our historical celebration. The post coins are on sale for $10 and shot glasses are $5, they can be purchased from the bartender during business hours.

The Post broke ground January 28th, 1950 and has been at its current location every since. It was chartered in 1920 and has maintained a large membership adjusting throughout time. It has been in the top 10 largest post in Indiana since 2013.

Ground Breaking January 28th, 1950, Cost $22,000
